GLORIA STEINEM

If Gloria had been born a man, and developed the same antipathy for the opposite sex she has possessed, she/he might be spending her/his time hiding in the bushes in Central Park waiting for vulnerable women joggers to come by.

Gloria marches for equal rights while men obligated to die, in war and workplace:

While many men were dying in Vietnam in 1970, Gloria and other feminists were marching for more women's rights in New York City. The obligation of defending our country was then, as it is now, male only.

Gloria conceives low self esteem conspiracy:

"This society, makes us feel insecure-the vast array of external hierarchies that depend for their authority on weakening our authority-especially women's." She speaks in terms of us verses the enemy. Others are always responsible for the wrongs they have suffered. Usually meaning men are to blame.

Gloria's advocates "One Free Grope" for Clinton:

Steinem: "The truth is that even if the allegations are true," (regarding Kathleen Willey), "the President is not guilty of sexual harassment." That's right Gloria, it's even worse, it's sexual abuse! Steinem puts politics over principles in defense of feminism advocate Bill Clinton.

Gloria bullies Dr. Benjamin Spock at speaking engagement:

Spock: "Gloria Steinem got up and said in a loud, stony tone; 'Dr. Spock, I hope you realize that you're one of the major oppressors of women and in the same category as Sigmund Freud.'" Why? Because he always addressed women as the nurturers of our families? Why wouldn't he! Spock, totally intimidated, stated her remark changed him both personally and professionally.

Gloria puts "fish" in mouth:

Gloria's quote: "A woman needs a man like a fish needs a bicycle," seems embarrassingly silly now with her being married, and recent events like the POW Jessica Lynch rescue by an all-male special ops team!

One of Gloria's pet fantasies:

She'd like to see someone like the Lubavitcher Rebbe so defeated in a debate that he's "laughed off the stage. The whole thing is telecast by satellite in every language of the world." Not much respect for a revered Jewish leader and his religious beliefs.

This then is what's basically wrong with feminists like Gloria: They largely are predicated on a hatred of men, not as individuals but collectively, and a wish to see them shamed and degraded. In effect, emotionally and psychologically raped.
